

Entomological Society of British Columbia

Symposium:

Outbreaks, Climate Change, and Shifting Priorities:
The Future of Forest Entomology

Saturday, October 17, 2015

Henry Grube Educational Centre, Kamloops, BC

Time	Speaker	Title
9:00	Welcome and Opening Remarks
9:10	Tim Ebata , BC Ministry of Forest, Lands and Natural Resource Operations	Forest Entomology in the BCFLNR
9:45	Lorraine Maclauchlan , BC Ministry of Forest, Lands and Natural Resource Operations	Dryocoetes confusus, shaping subalpine fir forests
10:20	Coffee
10:35	Brian Van Hezewijk Natural Resources Canada, Victoria, B.C.	Predicting Outbreaks of the Western Spruce Budworm: Are we there yet?
11:10	Lisa Poirier University of Northern British Columbia, Prince George, B.C.	Western Spruce Budworm in a Changing World
11:45	Bill Riel and Alex M. Chubaty Pacific Forestry Research Centre, Victoria, B.C.	Evolution of Decision Support for Forest Ecosystem Management: Towards Open Modelling and Data
12:20	Adjourn

